

Issue 1300 Real App Validation

Branch: `issue-1300-friend-status-messages`

Network: Devnet

Local account created: `openai`

Daniel test user: `dbp`

Result

- Created and saved real Devnet account `openai`.
- Opened a real direct chat with Daniel's Devnet username `dbp`.
- Sent a real Devnet message to `dbp`.
- Changed friend status to Tolled, then restored it to Connection.
- Confirmed real status-change rows render in the message list.
- Confirmed recent chat preview shows `< You set dbp as Connection`.

Tooling Notes

Computer Use was attempted repeatedly for Chrome and Finder, but the local Computer Use bridge timed out after 120 seconds each time. The real app validation was completed through a persistent local Chrome profile using Chrome DevTools Protocol as a fallback, not a mocked fixture.
